ARTHURELL PAROLE REVIEW HEARING ADJOURNED

The State Parole Authority today adjourned the review hearing of offender Reginald Arthurell to September 10.

Legal representatives for Prisoners Legal Service and Crown Solicitor told the SPA they had agreed to stand over the hearing for further reports regarding the offender's post release plans and accommodation.

An offender cannot be released to supervised parole without appropriate and approved accommodation and post release plans.

The offender did not appear in court for today's legals only proceedings.

Arthurell's head sentence of 24 years will expire in May 2021.

His public review hearing on September 10 will be held in Court 1A at the Sydney West Trial Courts, Parramatta.
